KATHY DAVIS FIRST DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

Elected in 1996, Kathy Davis is serving her first term as a member of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors where she represents the largest district in the largest county in the United States.

Previous to her election to the Board of Supervisors, Mrs. Davis served the residents of the Town of Apple Valley as Mayor, Mayor Pro Tem and Councilmember.

Along with her late husband, well known pilot Bill Davis, Kathy and their children moved to the Town of Apple Valley in 1983. Their son, Jason, now attends U.C. San Diego where he is a Bio-Chemistry Major and their daughter, Samantha, is a student at Apple Valley High School.

In addition to her numerous duties as a Supervisor, Kathy also serves as a Board Member of San Bernardino Association of Governments (SANBAG), Chairs the Mojave Desert Solid Waste Joint Powers Authority, is a member of the Board of Trustees of Southern California Water Committee, the Morongo Basin Transit Authority and the Mojave Desert AQMD. She is also a member of the Victor Valley Transit Authority, and Chairs the Victor Valley Economic Development Authority. Kathy is the former Chairperson of the Town of Apple Valley Disaster Council and former Town representative to the High Desert Regional Economic Authority and the Victor Valley Waste Water Reclamation Authority.

A licensed pilot and antique aircraft owner, Kathy is a member of various antique aircraft Clubs. She is also active in both professional women's organizations and community groups. She is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Association, NAACP, Apple Valley Rotary Club, the Hesperia Elks and the National Rifle Association.

The old adage remains true, "If you want something done, ask a busy person to do it!"
